

PRESIDENT ANDREW JACKSON VS BANKSTERS

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

Sources: History of Andrew Jackson, A. Buell; The Intimate Life Of Alexander Hamilton, A. Hamilton, 1910; The Shocking Death of Spencer Perceval, M. Gillen; Nicholas Biddle: Public Banker, T. Govan; The Rothschilds, F. Morton.

February 25 1791: Alexander Hamilton, (a born Alexander Levine in the West Indies), as Secretary of the Treasury, pushed a bank Bill through Congress to establish the First Bank of the United States.

Documents in the British Museum prove that Alexander Hamilton received payment from the Rothschilds for his deed in binding the US government and the States to the international bankers.

January 24 1811: Congress debates renewal of the charter for the First Bank of the United States.

March 4 1811: The First Bank of the United States is closed. As a result, the House of Rothschild, who had controlling stock, loses millions. This enrages Nathan Rothschild who then coerces the British Parliament to retake the colonies thus fomenting the War of 1812.

May 11 1812: British Prime Minister Spencer Perceval, a devout Christian, is slain by an assassin named John Bellingham. Because Perceval was decidedly against entering into the War of 1812 the Jewish bankers of England had Prime Minister Spencer Perceval assassinated.

June 18 1812: Backed by Rothschild money, the British declare war on the US.

December 5 1815: President Madison proposes a Second Bank of the United States.

January 7 1817: Congress creates the Second Bank of the United States.

Jackson said it was the Rothschilds who tried to kill him...

ANDREW JACKSON BATTLES ROTHSCHILD AGENT NICHOLAS BIDDLE

THE ROTHSCHILD AGENT and child prodigy, Nicholas Biddle (b. in Philadelphia 1786), was the main proponent for central banking. Biddle moved to France at the ages of 19-24 where he came under the tutelage of Nathan Rothschild.

In 1822, under President James Monroe, Biddle became president of the Second Bank of the United States located in Philadelphia.

In 1828, immediately upon his election as the new President of the US, President Andrew Jackson began an investigation of the Second Bank of the United States. President Jackson argued that the bank was privately owned with stockholders from foreign nations who had political agendas at odds with the United States. President Jackson, an avowed Christian, is known for these famous words against the Rothschilds:

— “You are a den of thieves vipers, and I intend to rout you out, and by the Eternal God, I will rout you out.” —

The battle raged and by 1832 when Jackson was up for re-election, the bankers tried to get a renewal Bill for the bank passed. But Jackson vetoed the bill and made a speech concerning the event:

— “More than 8,000,000 of the stock of the bank is held by foreigners who are more dangerous than the military power of an enemy.” —

In 1832 when Jackson ran for re-election and, despite the fact that the bankers poured $3,000,000 into Henry Clay's campaign to defeat him, he was re-elected.

PRESIDENT ANDREW JACKSON BEATS THE BANKSTERS

IN 1833 PRESIDENT ANDREW JACKSON STARTED REMOVING the government's deposits from the Rothschilds' Second Bank of the United States.

In early January 1835, Jackson paid off the final installment of the National Debt. Jackson needed now only to complete the final removal of all US deposits in the Rothschilds' Central Bank.

On January 30 1835, an assassin by the name of Richard Lawrence tried to kill President Jackson but failed. President Jackson later claimed that he knew the Rothschilds were responsible for the attempted assassination.

President Andrew Jackson then removed all the Government deposits in the Second Bank of the United States and it collapsed. President Andrew Jackson had conquered the Banksters (Unfortunately the Bankers are back with the privately-owned Federal Reserve Bank).
